The directors of the protechnical school hope for the filing of the report by Thursday at the latest. In estimating the value of the arsenal property it has been suggested to members the board that all of the building material of the old buildings standing on the site of the new federal building was sold after its purchase by the government for ess than $2,000. Consideration of this should be taken in estimating the value of the buildings now in the arsenal property. it is suggested. There is an impression that as soon as the appraisement of the property is made a board of officers will be detailed by Adtotant General Corbin to come to Indianapolis and select one of the four sites for an army post recommended to the consideration of the War Department by the board of officers headed by Colonel Mc-Caskey, of the Twentieth Infantry, which recently visited Indianapolis.

THE RECEIPTS ATTACHED.

Muncie Hotel Man Has a Claim

Against George Monroe. The box office receipts of the Indianapois Athletic Club's boxing bout between George Monroe, of New York, and Gus Bezenah, of Cincinnati, were attached on the complaint of Josiah W. Drake, of Muncie, yesterday, and were taken to the office of Justice of the Peace Sheppard, where they will be held until a civil suit is tried in that court Monday. Drake is the proprietor of the Walnut Hotel at Muncle and he claims that George Monroe, one of the pugilists, is indebted to him for board money amounting to $75.25. He secured an attachment on Monroe's share of the purse, but Constable Philip Marer was unable to locate Monroe, and he attached the box office receipts.

It is understood that the complainant on the board account has no claim to a share of the box office receipts, as the directors of the Indianapolis Athletic Club claim that their contract with Monroe for a bout here was made with the pugilist's manager, Emil Theery, of Chicago, Theery is still in Indianapolis awaiting the decision of the justice, but Monroe left for Chicago | real-estate held of $256,198.59. REPORT OF STATE AUDITOR HART PRESENTED TO GOVERNOR.

Comprehensive Discussion of Finances Included and Needed Legislation Outlined in Detail.

DELINQUENT TAX QUESTION

HEROIC ENFORCEMENT OF PRESENT LAWS BADLY NEEDED.

Tax Levy Should Not Be Reduced, He Says-Building Associations, Insurance, Land and Banks.

The report of William H. Hart, auditor of state, filed with the Governor yesterday, presents in detail a record of a successful and thoroughly businesslike administration ments on the questions of finance, admintant recommendations made to the Gov-

The auditor recom good citizenship. Thousands of dollars are absolutely lost by either going off the duplicates through insolvency or the removal of delinquents to other locations. The Legislature recently endeavored to cure this wrong by increasing the treasurers' fees 2 per cent., but still the evil exists, and in my judgment, because of the lack of heroic enforcement of the present laws. Here and there over the State are instances of what can be done, notably in Marion county. The treasurer of Fayette county in one township only had $75 in delin-

POWERS DELEGATED. "I believe the state tax commissioners are delegated powers by the statute to supervise delinquent taxes in the different counties, and if additional legislation is necessary, it ought to be supplied, to the end that these omissions of public duty public attention. The bank statements of trasted with the amount of money on hand or deposit, returned by the taxpayer is a sessment lists as a whole, and when is added the other property of this class, it can readily be seen that at least 50 per cent. of the personal values of the commonwealth are untaxed. Since tithing and taxation have had a history, the effort has been to cure this evil, and yet the solution has not been reached. The maintenance of the State institutions, the auditor says, notwithstanding the increased prices entering into consumption, has been within the appropriations and there will be no deficit for the Legislature to provide for. He suggests that a very decided saving could be made by purchasing supplies for all the State institutions in one competitive bid, on the general plan adopted by the government in buying army civil war claim of $635,859.20 is reviewed by the auditor and he gives great credit to George U. Bingham, building association inspector of the office who prepared the claim. The attorney general, the Governor and members of the Indiana delegation in Congress are also commended. There is yet due from the government, Mr. Hart finds, $21,966.46 on account of the expense of the Spanish-American war, but this cannot be collected without special legislation by Congress. PAYING OFF DEBT. Taking up the finances of the State, Auditor Hart presents the following statement showing the payments made on the public debt, and follows it with a recommendation as to debt-paying policy in the future:

Jan. 3, 1901, 3 per cent refunding Jan. 2, 1902, 3 per cent. refunding July 26, 1902, 3 per cent. refunding

It is probable $200,000 additional can be plied Jan. 1. The amount of the public debt is as follows: Three per cent, school fund refunding bonds, with option clause, redeemable at the pleasure of the State.....$1,313,000.00 Three and one-half per cent. temporary fund bonds, redeemable

It will be seen there is only $1,313,000 of the debt bearing the option clause, and with no excessive appropriations this can be easily paid during the term of the present years. The 3 per cent. specific debt levy out being overserious. be no reduction of the State tax levy. The debt-paying record has not been at the expense of a proper care of the State's needs in any direction. The growing demands of our institutions have been generally met. A continuance of the present levy will supply ample revenues for the necessities of a State increasing as is Indiana, and keep our institutions on their present level of excellence. The levy is one of the lowest of any State in the Union, and would not be ample were it not for the condensed system of government, free as it is from cumbersome bureaus, and the salary basis of State officials, which this year turned near $410,000 of fees into the public

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS. Summarizing the work of the building association department, the auditor says that the assets of building associations have increased $725,739.14. This is the first year since 1896 that there has not been a falling off in the volume of business. In addition to this there has been an increase in loans of $1,100,748.04 and a decrease in in dues, prepaid and paid-up stock and deposits has been $662,960.94. The auditor concludes that these associations are again becoming popular and regaining the confidence they enjoyed prior to the days of their promotion for the purpose of accumulating a large expense fund to be divided among managers. In the past few years, he says, many of these associations have been fast growing away from the original plan and gradually assuming the nature of a banking business. The auditor makes the following suggestions: First, the making of definite contracts with each individual borrower, so that fixed payments at definite periods for a fixed time will cancel his loan; second, that the power to receive deposits be given; third, the power to borrow money under proper re-strictions. The auditor of state should also be given authority to make periodical examinations of these associations, he says, without which there can be no complete supervision. This authority is given in the case of banks and trust companies, he points out, so why should it be denied in

There are now 114 state banks, all in excellent condition. During the year there were thirteen new banks organized, one retired from business and two reorganized. There are five savings banks. The trust companies are coming into general use as depositories for savings, the difference being that in trust companies the depositors get an agreed per cent. for a specified time, while in savings banks they share in the profits. The auditor recommends that the law be amended so that the organization of collateral branch banks would be im-

LAND DEPARTMENT.

The land department, he says, reflects the very prosperous condition of the country. The State has been able to close out a good deal of property that has accrued through the foreclosure of college and permanent endowment fund loans. There is a very light holding of such property now in the possession of the State. The low interest rates have resulted in an inability to make loans of the college fund, so that a very large per cent. of the fund is lying unused in the treasury. He states that it would be to the best interests of the State University if a statute were passed authorizing the distribution of the fund as fast as collected to the different counties of the State on the same basis as is now authorized in the distribution of the permanent endowment fund. This money would give Indiana University a steady income and would enable the money to be loaned in the different sections of Indiana in the insurance interests of the State. The prosecution of irresponsible insurance companies has been steadily kept up and of the office. The report is comprehensive, so successfully that the State is practically including statistics of the department, com- free from wildcat organizations. The recommendation is made that the further organization of life-assessment companies be istration of state institutions, and impor- prohibited. The system as applicable to the regular life industry, he says, has been and ever will be a failure. ### FIREMAN NOSSAMAN DEAD.

He Succumbs to Injuries Received at Greensburg.

Ernest D. Nossaman, substitute fireman on a Big Four freight engine, died Thursday night at St. Vincent's Hospital from injuries that he received earlier in the day. Nossaman was injured at Greensburg. He lived in this city at 25 Highland avenue. He was assisting the regular fireman. Charles McMullen, in cleaning out the fire box. McMullen had been under the engine and came out. Nossaman took up the work. A cut of cars ran against the engine, pushing it over Nossaman. His body was crushed and his skull was fractured.

Bitten by a Mad Dog.

R. A. Baker, proprietor of a grocery at 3501 Massachusetts avenue, will go to New Castle to-day to secure the application of a madstone to a wound on his hand caused by a bite from what he thinks to be a mad dog. Baker's hand is badly lacerated, and is swollen. Other persons bitten by the dog are Baker's son Raymond, Guy Brantlinger and a man named Gibson.

Died at the Poor Farm. Mary Thornton, an inmate at the county farm, died yesterday of consumption. She was twenty-six years old. Nobody has claimed the body. Little of the woman is known, except that she once spoke of having relatives in Texas where she was born. She formerly worked at an overall factory in this city. She was received at the institution Oct. 25.

The step taken is believed to be one to assemble all the indebtedness of the road and discharge it so that the Big Four, which now owns it and for which Mr. Dye is general counsel, will clear its title. The bill alleges that the bonds of the company were authorized by a mortgage filed Oct. 30, 1891, which made the trust company and Joseph Collett, of Terre Haute, trustees. The authorized issue was $2,000,000. Of this amount $1,425,000 was since 1893. The amount of delinquent interests amounts to $748,125, and the 6 per cent. interest on this delinquency, provided tion interests in the East and in Ohio, and | for in the mortagage, amounts to $243,140. The bill asks the court to foreclose the mortgage and render judgment for the principal, interest and interest on delinquent interest, in all amounting to $2,419,-265 and for the appointment of a receiver. It is expected that this will be the final chapter in the settlement of the C. & S. E. This road runs from Muncie to Brazil through Delaware, Madison, Hamilton, Boone, Montgomery, Parke and Clay counties and has branches to other points.
